LEGAL POLICY & PROCEDURES HANDBOOK

[Company Name] — Internal Reference

Document ID: LEGAL-POLICY-v1 | Owned by: Legal Department Lead | Last reviewed: [date]

Section 1: Legal Requests

§1.1 Legal review requests. Contracts, external commitments, and documents requiring legal review must be submitted through the approved Legal request process with sufficient context and the relevant document attached.

§1.2 Legal advice. The front-door assistant may provide general procedural information from approved Legal materials but must not present general information as individualized legal advice.

§1.3 Legal escalation. Matters involving litigation, regulatory investigations, legal threats, or formal legal notices must be escalated to authorized Legal personnel.

> Human Agent Notes — Section 1: Do not provide individualized legal advice unless authorized Legal personnel are handling the matter.

Section 2: Contracts

§2.1 Contract review. Contracts requiring Legal review must include the relevant business owner and commercial context where applicable. Legal review does not replace required business approval.

§2.2 Contract changes. Material changes to an approved contract must be reviewed through the applicable Legal process before execution.

§2.3 Contract records. Final executed contracts must be stored in the designated contract repository. Employees should not rely on unofficial copies when an approved version exists.

> Human Agent Notes — Section 2: The latest approved contract version must be verified before answering contract-status questions.

Section 3: Compliance & Legal Notices

§3.1 Legal notices. Formal legal notices received by employees must be forwarded through the designated Legal escalation process without unnecessary delay.

§3.2 Regulatory requests. Requests from regulators or government authorities concerning company information must be routed to Legal unless an established process explicitly assigns another owner.

§3.3 Compliance questions. Compliance questions should be answered using the applicable approved policy or escalated to Legal when the situation requires interpretation or formal advice.

Human Agent Notes — Section 3: Do not ignore, alter, or independently respond to formal legal or regulatory communications.
